The score consists of six systems of staves. The first system shows the clarinet part with a whole rest. The second system shows the piano accompaniment with a piano (p) dynamic and a "Con ped." (con pedale) instruction. The third system shows the clarinet part with a whole rest. The fourth system shows the piano accompaniment. The fifth system shows the clarinet part with a first ending bracket and a piano (p) dynamic. The sixth system shows the piano accompaniment. This musical score is written for piano and voice in the key of D major (two sharps). The piano accompaniment is spread across two systems of grand staves. The first system consists of two measures, and the second system consists of three measures. The voice part is written on a single staff and spans the same six measures. The notation includes various musical symbols such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures, time signatures, notes, rests, and slurs. A large, diagonal red watermark with the text "SAMPLE! Israel" is overlaid across the center of the page, partially obscuring the musical notation.

The image displays a musical score for piano and voice. The score is written on six staves. The top staff is a single melodic line, likely for a voice, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). A box containing the number '2' is positioned above the second measure of this staff. The remaining five staves are arranged in pairs, representing the piano accompaniment. Each pair consists of a treble and a bass clef. The piano parts feature complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and various rests. A large, red, diagonal watermark is superimposed over the entire score, reading 'SAMPLE INC Israel' in a stylized font.
